

21st Annual Ontario Technological Skills Competition &
16th Annual Canadian Skills Competition

Forklift Drivers Needed

Industry volunteers are needed to prepare for the largest skilled trades competitions in Canada. The Ontario Technological Skills Competition (OTSC) and Canadian Skills Competition (CSC) allow thousands of students to demonstrate the skills they have acquired through their skilled trades or technology education.

Where: RIM Park and Manulife Financial Sports Complex, 2001 University Avenue East, Waterloo

When: Set Up: Thursday, May 13th to Monday, May 17th
OTSC Events: Monday, May 17th to Wednesday, May 19th
CSC Events: Thursday, May 20th to Saturday, May 22nd
Tear Down: The evening of Saturday, May 22nd

Qualifications: Forklift license, organizational skills, communication skills, a desire to contribute to the on-going success of this event and to make a difference for Ontario's youth.

These events are for volunteers who are passionate about skilled trades and want to ensure youth studying this career path have the opportunity to excel. The Ontario Technological Skills Competition and Canadian Skills Competition provide competitors an opportunity to demonstrate the skills they have been developing and for the visitors, the opportunity to see what these vibrant careers are all about. If you are interested in making a difference for tomorrow's workforce we encourage you to volunteer with us.
