Specialists in Helping People with Disabilities FIND JOBS

What We Do:

- Our talented and dedicated team of case managers and job developers work with individuals with a variety of disabilities and barriers to employment to assist them in reaching their employment goals.

How We Do That:

- Meeting with potential clients to determine eligibility for our services
- Providing assistance with setting realistic employment goals and developing job search skills such as resume preparation, job search strategies, and interview techniques
- Developing a personalized step-by-step plan to meet individual employment goals
- Actively reaching out to employers and community partner organizations to secure job leads for our clients
- Successfully placing clients in suitable jobs across a full range of employment sectors

In addition, we provide assistance with developing self-employment plans and mentorship for eligible entrepreneurs
